To eradicate poverty & to mitigate the unemployment problem in India a unique initiative was taken up jointly by SDME Trust, Syndicate Bank & Canara Bank during the year 1982 under the visionary leadership of Dr. D Veerendra Heggade, Dharmadhikari of Dharmasthala. The Collective thinking gave concrete shape in establishing institutional frame work in the form of RUDSETI since 1982.

RUDSET INSTITUTE –A BRIEF

BACKGROUND:

Millions of unemployed youths particularly from rural and semi urban background who could not access higher/professional education, but oriented towards either secured Government jobs or private employment, are driven to despair for not getting the same. As a consequence, these distressed youth are not only attracted but also involved in antisocial activities for their livelihood. The tremendous waste of human resources and mismatch of potentiality with productive deployment of available resources has put the planners and administrators in to a difficult situation.

Being an Management graduate from XIMB had worked with different corporates. It was in 2015, I decided to become an entrepreneur and came to my hometown Bhubaneswar. After leading in uniforms I decided it was high time to start my garment manufacturing unit. I applied for PMEGP and had a chance of getting trained in RUDSETI INSTITUTE. I personally feel that those were the few days I built up good contacts and got my knowledge belished for being an entrepreneur. Today I have a successful running unit and have worked with PRUs like Railways & Nalco. We are constantly diversifying and growing. I am very much thankful to RUDSETI and I wish them all the best.
